

| DR. KEVIN BOYS, PRESIDENT

Following the Special Meeting of September 4, on Tuesday, September 8, I hand delivered of this writing, we have had a total of three cases: one tested positive, one presumptive case (tested, results not known), and one close contact of a positive famil

Synchronous online learning can include all of the above, but also requires students to attend regularly scheduled ZOOM sessions that more closely approximate a face-to-face class.

CCP Site refers to those courses that are delivered at the high school location, frequently taught by credentialed instructors who regularly teach at that school.

Face-to-Face refers to courses physically meeting in a classroom for the required days/times which align with credit hours, lab hours, contact hours, clinical hours, etc.

Traditional Hybrid = Students meet face-to-face typically half of the time required while conducting the other portion of the class in an online format using the CANVAS.

Split Hybrid = Students meet face-to-face one day and attend via ZOOM the second day, while supplementing with CANVAS.

An Empha

following:

Mr. Sam Ginn, Associate Faculty Member, Philosophy/Instructional Design Consultant – Online Course Design Quality Reviews and General Q/A Sessions and Special Presentation: Best Practices in Distance Education

Dr. Mary Hriko, Director of Library Services, Kent State University - Special Guest Presentation: Distance Learning Student Engagement & Faculty Presence

Mr. Travis Martin, Associate Professor of Accounting - Zoom Hybrid/SMART TV Training and Q/A sessions

Ms. Angel Mootispaw, Director of Instructional Technology – Comprehensive leadership and support of instructional technology and related services.

Dr. Sara Nielsen, Instructor of Chemistry – Special Presentation: CANVAS Gradebook Basics

Ms. Tracy Adkins, Contracted Instructional Design Support assisting with quality design reviews and distance learning implementation.

Mr. Brian Rice, Executive Director of Technology and the entire IT Team (Katy Markey, Shirley Cornwell, Jessica Steadman, Justin Hamilton, Roberta Latham, Bob Snellman, and Gary Jones) – Champions for technology acquisition, implementation, and troubleshooting

Ms. Cathy Zile, Academic Technology Support Specialist – Resident CANVAS expert and general consultant for all things CANVAS and instructional technology/never ending, open line for Q/A and troubleshooting.

The Library Team (Meg, Betty, Becca, Tim, and Holly) – Champions for all faculty and for offering assistance wherever it is needed

Career Services is also transitioning to more virtual delivery of resources. Students will Honors in Action Regional Conference was held virtually on July 18 and attended by the chapter advisor and the chapter president. This activity contributes to the chapter goal of reaching a 5-star status.

The spring semester induction and orientation have been postponed until a date can be determined in Fall Semester.

College Projects

PTK is leading the health ambassador project for the college. This will serve as the chapter's college project for submission as a Hallmark Award and will also contribute towards the 4-star requirements.

The chapter will be coordinating a leadership initiative in the form of a lunch and learn.

Membership

23 new members were added to the chapter's membership roster during the summer semester. Invitations were released to 299 students who achieved eligibility after completion of Summer Semester 2020.

Scholarship

Scholars are encouraged to assume leadership roles by participating in Society programs and are selected based on scholastic achievement, community service and leadership potential. Nearly 700 applications were received.

A total of $207,000 is awarded through the Leaders of Promise Scholarship Program. The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation provides $200,000 in funding for the scholarships, with $25,000 set aside for members who are veterans or active members of the United States military. The remaining amount is supported by donations to the Phi Theta Kappa Foundation and provides seven Global Leaders of Promise Scholarships, earmarked for international students.

“The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation has a long history of providing financial assistance to outstanding students at community colleges,” said Jane Hale Hopkins, President of the Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation. “We are proud to partner with Phi Theta Kappa to make it possible for more deserving students to achieve their educational goals and support tomorrow’s leaders of the global community.”

The funds provided by the Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation not only aid college completion, but also give students the opportunity to engage in Society programs