

Witty, rip-roaring farce hits the stage April 14 – 16

SSCC Theatre presents 'Moonlight & Magnolias' playing April 14-16 in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium on Southern State Community College Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro. The Friday and Saturday performances begin at 7:30 p.m.; the Sunday matinee begins at 3:30 p.m.

It's 1939 and Hollywood is abuzz. Legendary producer David O. Selznick (played by Jacob Bice) has shut down production of his new epic, "Gone with the Wind," a film adaptation of Margaret Mitchell's novel. The screenplay just doesn't work. So what's a powerful movie mogul to do? While fending off the film's stars, gossip columnists, and his own father, Selznick sends a car for famed screenwriter Ben Hecht (Camden Griffith) and pulls formidable director Victor Fleming (Shawn Thomser) from the set of "The Wizard of Oz." Summoning both to his office, he locks the doors, closes the shades, and on a diet of bananas and peanuts fueled by Miss Poppengul (Chelsea Heifner) the three men labor over five days to fashion a screenplay that will become the blueprint for one of the most successful and beloved films of all time.
