

Auditions for SSCC Theatre's "The Diviners" will be August 25 and 26

SSCC Theatre will hold auditions for the production of "The Diviners" by Jim Leonard, Jr

Open to community members and students, auditions will be held on Friday, August 25, and at 10:00 a.m., Saturday, August 26, in the Edward K. Daniels Auditorium of Southern State Community College's Central Campus, 100 Hobart Drive, Hillsboro.

Set in a quaint Indiana town during the 1930s, this gothic prairie tale revolves around a heartbreaking event that unfolds in the life of Buddy Layman, a mentally disabled boy entering a water divination for a nearby farmer. Buddy forms a bond with C.C. Showers, a traveler passing through the town, who is deeply moved by both the arrival of the stranger and his own poignant story. This includes Buddy's wrenching experience during his childhood and the subsequent loss of his mother in the same tragic incident.

Those interested in auditioning should prepare a two-minute monologue and schedule an audition slot at <https://www.sscctheatre.com/auditions>. Memorization of the monologue is recommended but not required. Those interested in applying for a position will be asked to complete an interview during the audition. Please schedule an interview slot at the same link above.

If interested in auditioning or working on a production, please contact Director Rainee Angles (rangles@sscc.edu) to schedule an alternate audition date, before August 25.

"The Diviners" will be performed November 3-5. For more information about available roles and rehearsal schedule, please visit www.sscctheatre.com.
